I am reconvening with the core team early tomorrow. They had constructed an already tight schedule with a target of April 29. They are supposed to come back to me on my request that we see how doable something more like mid-March would be. By the way, this obviously would mean very tight review times both in the Region and HQ.

Bill and I discussed this last night and he will draft a message today that we'll send to HQ folk describing upcoming communication tasks and proposed time lines. Assuming that info. would then be a significant part of the discussion on Friday with Bob S..

When are we projecting to have the responsiveness summary done?

Thanks.

Allyn and I exchanged messages about one of these late yesterday.

I believe the most immediate one has a response due tomorrow, and I believe that one is for the comments on the report; the Yakima Herald is the requester..

The piece we are behind on is the list of external communications/releases with expected dates (that would include not just the FOIAs, but the newer data, our response to comments, the response to the dairy Fed, etc.) This was a piece we were intending to share with HQ in the wake of last week's call, I believe. I think that's fallen behind with Marianne out and then Bill as the communications back-up also out

Hi All:

Joyce sent me an update on the FOIAs this morning. I can't read the spreadsheet on my blackberry, but I understand the plan is to send out three FOIA responses tomorrow.

Joyce, could you summarize in the body of an email to us all which FOIAs we are planning to send out? Who was the requester and what information did they ask for? That would really help. I think we need to give HQ a heads up about the FOIAs, especially in light of the meeting with Bob S. that Michelle mentioned.

Thanks all.

Kendra,

I'm adding in Dan as lead for our public comment response and g/w data release. Also I see a meeting has been set up with Sussman for Friday.

Hi Ed, Tom-

I'm sending in the weekly cabinet report to HQ while Marianne is out of the office. Do we have any updates on Yakima that I should share? I'm specifically looking for any key communication/ outreach that will take place next week.

Thanks!
Kendra
